Farmingville, NY - On December 16, Councilman Kevin LaValle was delighted to return to his high school Alma Mater to honor Nikki Ortega, named Centereach High School's December Student of the Month. Nikki, who is ranked seventh in her Senior Class, has been on the Honor Roll throughout her four years of High School. She is the recipient of numerous academic and athletic honors, such as being named All American and Academic All-American by US Lacrosse, earning All County-Scholar Athlete Honors in 2012, 2013, and 2014. In addition, Nikki has been selected for the USA U19 Training Team, representing the US in Scotland for the World Cup in July 2015.

Councilman LaValle said, "Nikki is an exceptional young woman who has consistently demonstrated both academic and athletic excellence throughout her high school career. I'm pleased she has been given this recognition and, without a doubt, will achieve equal success at the University of Notre Dame in 2015."
